

CONTENTS

Marie Sandberg and Monique Scheer

50 Years of Ethnologia Europaea. Readers' Choices from Half a Century 5

Dorothy Noyes

Two Ways to Shape a Discipline in an "Extremely Sundered Part of the World".

Sigurd Erixon and Alberto Cirese Inaugurate Ethnologia Europaea 7

Sigurd Erixon

Reprinted from Ethnologia Europaea 1, 1967

European Ethnology in Our Time 11

Martine Segalen

Household Studies "à la mode"? Liv Emma Thorsen's Anthropology of Peasant Familial Labour 18

Liv Emma Thorsen

Reprinted from Ethnologia Europaea 16:2, 1986

Work and Gender. The Sexual Division of Labour and Farmers' Attitudes to Labour in Central Norway, 1920–1980 21

Peter Jan Margry

Ethnologia Nationum. Or, The World as We See It: "strange, but interesting" 30

Orvar Löfgren

Reprinted from Ethnologia Europaea 19:1, 1989

The Nationalization of Culture 35

Nevena Škrbić Alempijević

The Place of Culture(s) Revisited. Reading Konrad Köstlin 54

Konrad Köstlin

Reprinted from Ethnologia Europaea 29:2, 1999

Vanishing Borders and the Rise of Culture(s) 58

Silvy Chakkalakal

The Concept of (Post)Identity in Queer and Migration Studies. Learning from Kira Kosnick 65

Kira Kosnick

Reprinted from Ethnologia Europaea 38:2, 2008

Out on the Scene. Queer Migrant Clubbing and Urban Diversity 69

Orvar Löfgren

Comment for the Anniversary Issue

Re-Inventing and Deconstructing Europe. All in 136 Centimetres 81

Regina F. Bendix

Comment for the Anniversary Issue

She Grows Younger Every Year... 84