

SIEF Working Group on Archives Activities in 2015-2016

SIEF 2015 in Zagreb

The archival activities were represented
By four panels in Zagreb. The panels with total of 26 papers, were:

- Archives, digital collections, on-line databases and the internet
- Everyone an archivist? The role of participatory archives in creating cultural heritage
- Visions and traditions: the production of knowledge at the tradition archives
- Ethnographic archives: should we share or should we hide?

Dublin 2015, Believing in the Tradition Archive

A delegation of the Archives working group attended the conference Believing in the Tradition Archive, March 3, 2015, at the University College Dublin, Ireland.

SIEF WG on Archives Interim Conference. Riga, September 2016

The Archives of Latvian
Folklore (University of Latvia)
organized the conference
'Towards Digital Folkloristics:
research perspectives;
archival praxis; ethical challenges'

<http://lfk.lv/conference/>

How many digits?

The expansion of digitally mediated environments and methods for folklore collecting, processing and research has become an axis for folklore research. The conference provided a manifold view on folklore collecting, digitizing and crowd-sourcing activities from several parts of the globe.

Making it digital