March is a unique month in Bulgaria regarding the abundance of rituals, feasts and folklore allusions. The major motifs of the festivity will be under analysis: wakening of the nature and the Christian Orthodox notions, purity and fires, gender aspects, etc. A special attention is paid to the ritual numeral model of the celebration of the 40 Martyrs of Sebastia (March, 9).